MARK SCHEME for the May/June 2014 series

0500 FIRST LANGUAGE ENGLISH

0500/32

Paper 3 (Directed Writing and Composition), maximum raw mark 50

This mark scheme is published as an aid to teachers and candidates, to indicate the requirements of the examination. It shows the basis on which Examiners were instructed to award marks. It does not indicate the details of the discussions that took place at an Examiners' meeting before marking began, which would have considered the acceptability of alternative answers.

Mark schemes should be read in conjunction with the question paper and the Principal Examiner Report for Teachers.

Cambridge will not enter into discussions about these mark schemes.

Cambridge is publishing the mark schemes for the May/June 2014 series for most IGCSE, GCE Advanced Level and Advanced Subsidiary Level components and some Ordinary Level components.

Note: All Examiners are instructed that alternative correct answers and unexpected approaches in candidates' scripts must be given marks that fairly reflect the relevant knowledge and skills demonstrated. Nonetheless, the content must be clearly related to and derived from the passage.

Section 1: Directed Writing

Question 1

This question tests Writing Objectives W1–W5 (15 marks):

- articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined
- order and present facts, ideas and opinions
- understand and use a range of appropriate vocabulary
- use language and register appropriate to audience and context
- make accurate and effective use of paragraphs, grammatical structures, sentences, punctuation and spelling.

AND aspects of Reading Objectives R1–R3 (10 marks):

- understand and collate explicit meanings
- understand, explain and collate implicit meanings and attitudes
- select, analyse and evaluate what is relevant to specific purposes.

Read carefully the local newspaper article in the Reading Booklet Insert about student councils in schools. Then answer Section 1, Question 1 on this Question Paper.

Imagine you are a pupil in Mr Aziz's school. Write a letter to him, in which you

- identify and discuss his views against student councils
- evaluate why and how the school council could be good for everybody.

Base your letter on what you have read in the article, but be careful to use your own words. Begin your letter, 'Dear Mr Aziz...'

Write between $1\frac{1}{2}$ and 2 sides, allowing for the size of your handwriting. Up to 10 marks are available for the content of your answer, and up to 15 marks for the quality of your writing. [25]

General notes on likely content

The best responses will integrate the ideas in the passage in a convincing article. Average responses are sometimes well ordered summaries of the article. Less strong responses may be brief evaluations. Weaker responses tend to summarise, lift parts of the reading material or write irrelevantly, drifting away from the passage.

Candidates might use the following ideas:

Responses may include a wide range of points of which the following are examples:

A1 – discussion of Mr Aziz's views against school councils (explicit)

- school councils are 'lip service' only/fake/pointless
- decisions made by school councils are ignored schools are accountable to parents, not children
- the school's first priority is academic progress/'solid academic track record'
- children don't understand the issues involved
- school councils waste school time and teachers' energies
- Mr Aziz's 'door is always open'
- Elections become 'popularity contests'
- Consulting students undermines teachers' experience and skills

A2 – how and why school councils could be good for everybody (implicit) how

- there needs to be genuine consultation with pupils
- teachers' help is required
- teachers have to be more tolerant about homework
- realistic projects should be undertaken

why

- pupils' learning should be enhanced by participation in school councils
- pupils work harder in schools where their concerns are listened to
- skills learned in school council projects are useful for pupils
- participation in school council projects can motivate pupils/help them mature
- schools get the benefit of students' involvement e.g. the science block
- teachers/parents can see that pupils are more motivated/hard-working

Accept other relevant ideas derived from the passage and relevant to the question.

The question is marked out of 10 for Reading and 15 for Writing.

Use the following table to give a mark out of 10 for Reading.

| Band 1 | 9–10 | Gives a thorough, perceptive, convincing evaluation. Reads effectively between the lines. Shows understanding by developing much of the reading material and assimilating it into a response to the task. |
|--------|------|---|
| Band 2 | 7–8 | Some evidence of evaluation , engaging with a few of the main points with success. Uses reading material to support the argument. Occasionally effective development of ideas in the material. |
| Band 3 | 5–6 | Reproduces a number of points to make a satisfactory response. The response covers the material adequately, but may miss opportunities to develop it relevantly or at length. |
| Band 4 | 3–4 | Selects points from the passage rather literally and/or uses the material thinly . Does not combine points into a connected response. |
| Band 5 | 1–2 | Parts of the response are relevant, though the material may be repeated or used inappropriately. |
| Band 6 | 0 | Response does not relate to question and/or too much unselective copying directly from the material to gain a mark in Band 5. |

Use the following table to give a mark out of 15 for Writing.

| Band 1 | 13–15 | Consistent sense of audience; authoritative and appropriate style. Fluent, varied sentences; wide range of vocabulary. Strong sense of structure, paragraphing and sequence. Virtually no error. |
|--------|-------|--|
| Band 2 | 10–12 | Sense of audience mostly secure; there is evidence of style and fluency; sentences and vocabulary are effective. Secure overall structure; mostly well-sequenced. Writing is mainly accurate. |
| Band 3 | 8–9 | Occasional sense of audience; mostly written in correctly structured sentences; vocabulary may be plain but adequate for the task; mostly quite well structured. Errors minor. |
| Band 4 | 5–7 | Inconsistent style; simple or faultily constructed sentences; vocabulary simple; basic structure. Frequent errors, including sentence separation. |
| Band 5 | 3–4 | Inappropriate expression; the response is not always well sequenced. Serious errors in sentence structure/vocabulary/grammar/punctuation. |
| Band 6 | 1–2 | Expression unclear; flawed sentence construction and order. Persistent serious errors interfere with the conveying of meaning. |
| Band 7 | 0 | Problems of expression and accuracy are too serious to gain a mark in Band 6. |

COMPOSITION TASKS: TABLE A – CONTENT AND STRUCTURE

| | ARGUMENTATIVE/ DISCURSIVE TASK | DESCRIPTIVE TASK | NARRATIVE TASK |
| Band 1 11–13 | Consistently well developed, logical stages in an overall, at times complex, argument. Each stage is linked to the preceding one, and sentences within paragraphs are soundly sequenced. | There are many well-defined, well-developed ideas and images, describing complex atmospheres with a range of details. Overall structure is provided through devices such as the movements of the persona, the creation of a short time span, or the creation of atmosphere or tension. There is no confusion with writing a story. Repetition is avoided and the sequence of sentences makes the picture clear to the reader. | The narrative is complex and sophisticated and may contain devices such as sub-texts, flashbacks and time lapses. Cogent details are provided where necessary or appropriate. Different parts of the story are balanced and the climax carefully managed. Sentence sequences are sometimes arranged to produce effects such as the building up of tension or providing a sudden turn of events. |
| Band 2 9–10 | Each stage of the argument is defined and developed, although the explanation may not be consistent. The stages follow in a generally cohesive progression. Paragraphs are mostly well sequenced, although some may finish less strongly than they begin. | There is a good range of images with interesting details which contribute to a sense of atmosphere. These are formed into an overall picture of some clarity, largely consistent and effective. There may be occasional repetition, and opportunities for development or the provision of detail may be missed. Sentences are often well sequenced. | The writing develops some interesting features, but not consistently so. Expect the use of detail and some attention to character or setting. Writing is orderly and the beginning and ending are satisfactorily managed. The reader is well aware of the climax even if it is not fully effective. Sequencing of sentences provides clarity and engages the reader in events or atmosphere. |
