Guided learning hours

Cambridge IGCSE syllabuses are designed on the assumption that learners have about 130 guided learning hours per subject over the duration of the course, but this is for guidance only. The number of hours required to gain the qualification may vary according to local curricular practice and the learners' prior experience of the subject.

1.3 Why choose Cambridge IGCSE First Language English?

Cambridge IGCSE First Language English is designed for learners whose mother tongue is English. The course allows learners to:

- develop the ability to communicate clearly, accurately and effectively when speaking and writing
- learn how to use a wide range of vocabulary, and the correct grammar, spelling and punctuation
- develop a personal style and an awareness of the audience being addressed.

Learners are also encouraged to read widely, both for their own enjoyment and to further their awareness of the ways in which English can be used. Cambridge IGCSE First Language English also develops more general analysis and communication skills such as synthesis, inference, and the ability to order facts and present opinions effectively.

Prior learning

We recommend that learners who are beginning this course should have a level in English equivalent to First Language competence.

Progression

Cambridge IGCSEs are general qualifications that enable learners to progress directly to employment or to proceed to further qualifications.

Candidates who are awarded grades A* to C in Cambridge IGCSE First Language English are well prepared to follow courses leading to Cambridge International AS and A Level English Language, or the equivalent.

1.4 Cambridge ICE (International Certificate of Education)

Cambridge ICE is a group award for Cambridge IGCSE. It gives schools the opportunity to benefit from offering a broad and balanced curriculum by recognising the achievements of learners who pass examinations in a number of different subjects.

6.5 Component 5 Speaking and Listening Test

Approximately 10–12 minutes, 30 marks

There is no question paper for the test. The test is recorded for all candidates.

The forms required for the conduct and assessment of the test may be downloaded from www.cie.org.uk/samples (see Sections 7.2.3 and 7.2.5 for details).

The Speaking and Listening Test(s) take place during a period before the main examination series (see the relevant series' timetable).

Candidates must take the Speaking and Listening Test once only.

There are two parts to the test:

Part 1 Individual Task (3–4 minutes) (10 marks)

The candidate talks for about 3–4 minutes on a single topic or theme which they have selected prior to the test. For example, a presentation, a talk, a speech or a monologue (e.g. the candidate talks about his or her reactions to meeting a famous person; the candidate talks about a recent film he or she has seen and suggests why others would also like it).

The individual task leads into a conversation with the teacher/examiner about the candidate's chosen topic. For example, an account of meeting a famous person could be developed into a discussion of wider issues such as the nature and role of 'celebrity' and media intrusion; a talk about a film could be developed into discussion of wider issues such as censorship, popular culture and the film industry.

The discussion tests the following speaking and listening assessment objectives (20 marks):

SL1 articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined

SL2 present facts, ideas and opinions in a sustained, cohesive order

SL3 communicate clearly, fluently and purposefully as an individual and in dialogue with other speakers

SL4 use register appropriate to audience and context

SL5 listen to and respond appropriately to the contributions of others.

Dictionaries may not be used in the test.

A teacher/examiner conducts and internally assesses the test(s) using the assessment criteria in Section 7.2.4. This teacher/examiner will usually be someone from the Centre's English department. They send the final marks, a recorded sample of the candidates' performance and completed forms for external moderation by Cambridge before the advertised final date. Centres will receive a brief report on the outcome of the external moderation.

The final mark for the Speaking and Listening Coursework will be out of 30.

Candidates are assessed on their performance during the course in at least three different speaking and listening tasks. The tasks have different contexts as listed below and can be done in any order. Candidates can conduct different activities within a class.

Task 1 (individual activity) and Task 2 (pair-based activity) are recorded for all candidates.

Task 1 – An individual activity

For example, the candidate talks about his or her favourite hobby; the candidate describes a place that he or she has visited and enjoyed.

Task 2 – A pair-based activity

For example, two candidates role-play an argument between two neighbours; the teacher interviews two candidates about how something at school could be improved.

Task 3 – A group activity

For example, candidates discuss in a group who to invite (and why) to open the new local shopping centre; in a parole board scenario, the teacher presents cases for prisoners, and candidates discuss in a group whether or not each case merits early release.

Tasks are equally weighted in the final assessment and test the following speaking and listening assessment objectives (30 marks):

SL1 articulate experience and express what is thought, felt and imagined

SL2 present facts, ideas and opinions in a sustained, cohesive order

SL3 communicate clearly, fluently and purposefully as an individual and in dialogue with other speakers

SL4 use register appropriate to audience and context

SL5 listen to and respond appropriately to the contributions of others (Tasks 2 and 3 only).

Dictionaries may be used in preparing for the activities, but they may not be used during the activities.

A teacher/moderator conducts and internally assesses the activities using the assessment criteria in Section 7.3.3. This teacher/moderator will usually be someone from the Centre's English department. They send the final marks, a recorded sample of the candidates' performance and completed forms for external moderation by Cambridge before the advertised final date. Centres will receive a brief report on the outcome of the external moderation.

7. Additional information for Components 4, 5 and 6

7.1 Component 4 Coursework Portfolio

7.1.1 General guidance

Please read this information in conjunction with the relevant sections of the Cambridge Handbook and the Cambridge Administrative Guide.

1. Format of the portfolio

- The three assignments (together with the first draft of one of them) must be securely fastened (e.g. by stapling or treasury tags) and each must be marked clearly with the candidate's name, Centre number and candidate number.
- Work for external moderation must not be sent to Cambridge in plastic folders or bulky and heavy ring binders.
- A completed Individual Candidate Record Card must be included with each portfolio.

2. Assignments: general issues

- Assignments should arise from the programme of study undertaken by the teaching group.
- The best assignments are usually those that come from a shared learning experience but are finally chosen by individual candidates; negotiation of assignments with the teacher is recommended (bearing in mind that these should be sufficiently challenging to stretch candidates to their full potential). For example, a class might study types of short story and their structures and conventions before individual candidates choose their own titles and write their own short stories for Assignment 2.
- Questions from past examination papers should not normally be used for coursework. Candidates are not expected to work under timed conditions.
- Assignments 1–3 may be completed in any sequence during the course. It is generally better that candidates do more than three assignments during the course from which a suitable choice can eventually be made for the final portfolio.

3. Assignments: meeting the syllabus requirements

- The assignments must clearly demonstrate different writing intentions and styles to the reader. For example:

Assignment 1

Assignment 1 informative, analytical and/or argumentative	Two examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a logbook/diary giving information on what was done during two days of a work experience or an activity weekend (i.e. writing to inform) • an argument from an informed, personal viewpoint about a topical issue, e.g. arguing against the ill-treatment of prisoners (i.e. writing to persuade).

Candidates may submit poetry for Assignment 2, but this must be accompanied by some form of commentary by the candidate, e.g. about how the poem(s) came to be written. The commentary will be included in the word count.

Assignment 2 descriptive and/or narrative	Two examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • a detailed description of the people who frequent a local shop, and the atmosphere of the shop (i.e. writing to describe) • a story about internet hacking, demonstrating the candidate's understanding of how to create character, significant events and structure, such as climax or an unusual ending (i.e. writing to entertain).

- Assignment 3 is a piece of directed writing in response to a text or texts chosen by the teacher (or by the candidate, with the teacher's approval). This assignment is assessed for both writing and reading skills.
- Centres are advised to set text(s) of about two sides of A4 in length altogether. Text(s) may consist of controversial facts, opinions and/or arguments which can be analysed and evaluated by the candidate and can be transformed and integrated into their own views. Note that if a literature text(s) is used, candidates should respond to the facts, opinions and arguments contained in the text(s) rather than to the writer's choice of language and literary devices.
- Text(s) may be of local, national or global interest – or all three – and should be suitable for the ability range of the candidates. They may be drawn from a variety of sources, e.g. newspapers, magazine articles, travel writing, text-based websites, propaganda and media. Note that text(s) that are mainly informative or that provide content which has no development/discussion should not be set.
- The candidate should explain the views presented in the text(s), develop any ideas of interest and argue with or against them, examining them for inconsistencies and substituting complementary or opposing views.
- The assignment may be written in any appropriate form (e.g. an article, a letter, or the words of a speech), but teachers must make sure that Assignment 3 does not have the same form and style as Assignment 1 in the final portfolio.
- A copy of all texts used for the third assignment must be included with the sample of portfolios sent to the external moderator.

Assignment 3 response to texts	Two examples: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Stimulus text(s): several letters published in a newspaper in response to a proposal for a new development in the locality Assignment: Analyse and evaluate the information and views you have read and write an article based on them for the newspaper. Your own views should be based on the content of the letters. • Stimulus text(s): a magazine article advocating the cull of a species of animal that has become a nuisance Assignment: Analyse and evaluate the information and views expressed in the article and either (a) write your own article in response or (b) write a letter to the author of the article.

4. Drafting assignments

- In coursework, as in preparation for other forms of examination, it is natural for the teacher and learner to discuss the work and how it is progressing. Teachers will be more confident that the work is authentic if first drafts (e.g. plans following discussion) are completed in class, and seen and noted by them.
- Teachers must not mark, correct or edit draft material prior to submission of the assignment proper, as this is classed as improper practice. Learners should draft and redraft their work (see point 5 below), and teachers should give general advice.
- In order to allow candidates to demonstrate their abilities to the full, teachers must not provide candidates with any kind of template for their coursework.

5. Inclusion of a first draft in the portfolio

- Each candidate's portfolio must include a first draft of one of the three assignments.
- A first draft is defined as the first attempt at a continuous piece of writing. It may be word-processed or handwritten. It does not have to be neat, and may include crossings out and any indications that sections are to be moved from one part of the writing to another. A first draft may also include general comments by the teacher.
- Candidates are encouraged to revise, edit and correct their work and may discuss the process with their teachers. However, teachers are reminded that their advice must not constitute correction and that candidates must be responsible for specific corrections of spelling, punctuation and grammar.
- Candidates should not submit rough, outline plans.
- The first draft of one of the assignments will not contribute to the final internally assessed mark, or to the externally moderated mark for the portfolio. This draft is for the external moderator's use only. It will be used by the external moderator to:
 - help understand the process by which the assignment was completed
 - provide some evidence of any changes and improvements made by the candidate while working towards the final assignment
 - understand how the Centre assessment has been reached.
- Information gained from draft coursework pieces may also be used in the principal moderator's report to Centres to help develop teachers' understanding of the processes involved in coursework.

6. Length of assignments

- The component description suggests 'between 500 and 800 words' for each assignment. This is a sufficient length to attract the highest marks. Work that is significantly under- or over-length is likely to be self-penalising.

7. Use of word processors

- Each assignment may be either handwritten or word-processed. Electronic dictionaries and/or spell checkers may be used.
- Candidates should be reminded of the importance of careful proofreading of all their work. Typing errors, or the use of a wrong choice from a computer spell check or thesaurus, must be counted as errors, and shown as such.

8. Checking portfolios to ensure that the syllabus requirements have been met

- Teachers should check the contents of portfolios before finalising them: where candidates have been given many assignments and have made the final choice themselves, it is easy for two similar arguments or two similar stories to be included inappropriately.
- If a portfolio does not meet the syllabus requirements, please follow the information in Section 7.1.2 about awarding marks for incomplete coursework.

9. Checking portfolios for authenticity

- It is the Centre's responsibility to guarantee that all coursework submitted by candidates is their original work. Any work found to have been plagiarised must be removed before the portfolio is marked. The portfolio should then be marked in the normal way and a mark awarded for the overall quality. Please follow the information in Section 7.1.2 about awarding marks for incomplete coursework.
- Texts which provide material for informative or argumentative work, and which have been scanned/downloaded from publications, CD-ROMs and the internet, should be shown to the teacher; the teacher must remind candidates not to copy sections or whole sentences as their own. If appropriate, references to source material should be provided by the candidate at the end of an assignment.

7.1.2 Marking instructions

1. Candidates' marks must be recorded on Individual Candidate Record Cards produced by Cambridge. These forms, and the instructions for completing them, may be downloaded from www.cie.org.uk/samples. The database will ask you for the syllabus code (i.e. 0500) and your Centre number, after which it will take you to the correct forms. Follow the instructions when completing each form.
2. Teachers provide a comment on the quality of the portfolio overall at the bottom of each candidate's Individual Candidate Record Card; they must also mark each assignment by indicating strengths and weaknesses and by providing a comment at the end. These comments should be directly related to the assessment criteria in Section 7.1.3. Each item must bear evidence of the marking.
3. Individual assignments may be awarded marks/grades in whatever way is most appropriate for teachers and candidates. However, the total mark for the portfolio must be based on how the assessment criteria have been met. This total mark must reflect how achievement has varied across the different assignments, and how performance has varied across the assessment criteria for each assignment. Assessment, therefore, usually involves balancing strengths and weaknesses in the candidate's work overall. For this reason, the total mark is not necessarily a mathematical calculation based on marks/grades awarded to individual assignments during the course.
4. The teacher must mark each candidate's portfolio out of a total of 50, in line with the assessment criteria in Section 7.1.3.

The total mark for the portfolio is divided into 40 marks for writing and 10 marks for reading. For writing, a single mark out of 40 is given for the quality of the candidate's overall performance in the three assignments. For reading, the mark out of 10 is given according to how well the candidate demonstrates understanding of the text(s) in the response to the task set for Assignment 3 only.

5. Incomplete coursework

If one piece is not included in the portfolio, one third of the total mark for writing should be deducted. If the piece missing is Assignment 3, in addition to the reduction of a third of the mark for writing, no marks can be awarded for reading.

6. Internal moderation

Internal moderation should take place for Centres with more than one teacher/moderator. It is essential that the marks for each strand of the assessment criteria of candidates from different teaching groups within each Centre are moderated internally for the whole Centre. This means that the marks awarded to all candidates within a Centre must be brought to a common standard by the teacher responsible for co-ordinating the internal assessment (i.e. the internal moderator). A single valid and reliable set of marks should be produced, which reflects the relative attainment of all the candidates in the coursework component at the Centre. If the marking of any teacher is found to be lenient or severe, it should be adjusted to bring it into line with the rest of the Centre's marking. If the internal moderator cannot agree the rank order of the candidates in any teaching set, the work of that set must be remarked.

7.1.3 Assessment criteria

Note: It should not be assumed that a band in the assessment criteria directly equates to a grade. Final grade thresholds are decided for each series based on available evidence.

Marking: general principles

1. You are encouraged to use the full range of marks.
2. The general approach is a positive one.
3. Within any band, marks should be awarded on a 'best-fit' basis. Thus, compensation between higher and lower achievement for different aspects is acceptable.
4. Above all else, be consistent in your marking. If you are unsure of the mark to award, err on the side of generosity. Cambridge's external moderation process allows for adjustments to be made to consistently harsh or generous marking.

Table A: Band descriptions for writing (Assignments 1–3) (40 marks)

Band 8 (36–40): Confident and stylistic completion of challenging tasks throughout the portfolio

- W1: Candidates describe and reflect effectively upon experience, give detail and analyse thoughtfully what is felt and imagined. Arguments are cogent and developed in mature, persuasive thought.
- W2: Facts, ideas and opinions are ordered logically, each stage in the argument or narrative carefully linked to the next. Paragraphing is a strength, and candidates are confident in experimenting where appropriate in the structure of expressive writing.
- W3: Candidates write with assurance, using a wide range of effective vocabulary.
- W4: Candidates vary their style with assurance to suit audience and context in all three assignments. They use well-constructed sentences.
- W5: Candidates write accurately. They use punctuation and grammatical structures to define shades of meaning. They spell simple, complex and technical words with precision.

Band 7 (31–35): Frequent merit and interest in the choice of content and the manner of writing

- W1: Candidates describe and reflect upon experience, and analyse with occasional success what is felt and imagined. Some argument is well developed and interesting, although the explanation may not always be consistent.
- W2: Facts, ideas and opinions are often well ordered so that the construction of the writing is clear to the reader. Sentences within paragraphs are mostly well sequenced, although some paragraphs may finish less effectively than they begin.
- W3: Candidates write with some confidence, demonstrating an emergent range of varied vocabulary.
- W4: Candidates give evidence of understanding the need to write appropriately to audience and context even if there is not complete consistency in the three assignments. There is some fluency in the construction of sentences.
- W5: Candidates show some signs of understanding how punctuation and grammatical structures can be used to aid communication. Errors of spelling, punctuation and grammar are minor, and rare at the top of this band.

Band 6 (26–30): Competent writing with some development of ideas

- W1: Candidates express clearly what is felt and imagined and supply some detail, explanation and exemplification for the benefit of the reader. Arguments are expressed in a competent series of relevant points and a clear attempt is made to develop some of them.
- W2: A clear attempt is made to present facts, ideas and opinions in an orderly way, although there may be some insecurity in the overall structure.
- W3: Candidates write competently, using appropriate, if sometimes unadventurous, vocabulary.
- W4: Candidates make a clear attempt in at least one assignment to write with a sense of audience and there may also be some evidence of adapting style to context. Sentences mostly link ideas successfully.
- W5: Candidates use punctuation and grammar competently although the range is not strong. There may be a number of minor errors especially at the bottom of this band and even occasional errors of sentence separation.

Band 5 (21–25): Satisfactory content with brief development and acceptable expression

- W1: Candidates express with some clarity what is felt and imagined. Arguments are relevant to the topic and are developed partially with some brief effectiveness.
- W2: There is evidence of overall structure, but the writing may be presented more carefully in some sections than in others. There may be examples of repetition and the sequence of sentences within paragraphs may be insecure in places.
- W3: Candidates write with occasional competence, using a mixture of effective and straightforward vocabulary.
- W4: Candidates show occasional evidence of writing with some understanding of audience and context, but this is not sustained. Candidates use some complex and some simple sentences.
- W5: Candidates use a limited range of punctuation and grammatical structure with some care, although occasionally grammatical error will cause the reader some difficulty. There may be quite numerous errors, particularly of sentence separation and the misuse of commas.

Band 4 (16–20): Simple writing, the meaning of which is not in doubt

- W1: Candidates express intelligibly what is felt and imagined. Arguments are expressed with variable relevance, logic and development.
- W2: Facts, ideas and opinions are presented in paragraphs which may be inconsistent. The overall structure is unsound in places.
- W3: Candidates use simple, straightforward vocabulary.
- W4: Candidates make slight variations of style according to audience and context, although this does not seem deliberate. Simple sentences are correctly used and there may be an attempt to write complex sentences which have a slight lack of clarity.
- W5: Candidates show knowledge of simple punctuation and grammar, but the amount of error, especially of tense and the use of prepositions, is sometimes considerable. Sentence separation is often poor, but error does not prevent the reader from understanding what is written.

Band 3 (11–15): Writing can be followed despite difficulties with expression

- W1: Candidates make a simple attempt to express what is felt and imagined. Arguments are expressed very simply and briefly.
- W2: Facts, ideas and opinions may appear in partially formed paragraphs of inappropriate length and some attempt is made to provide a beginning and an end.
- W3: Candidates use simple, mainly accurate vocabulary.
- W4: Candidates may show occasional, brief acknowledgement of the possibility of writing for different audiences and contexts, but overall there is little variation of style. Attempts to write complex sentences may involve repetition of conjunctions and some blurring.
- W5: Candidates occasionally use appropriate punctuation and can spell simple words, but the reader is not convinced that their understanding, especially of grammar, is adequate.

Band 2 (6–10): Some of the writing can be followed

- W1: Candidates occasionally express what is felt, thought and imagined, but they are hampered by their command of language.
- W2: There may be some signs of an overall structure although inadequate presentation of facts, ideas and opinions creates blurring.
- W3: Candidates demonstrate a narrow vocabulary.
- W4: Candidates may write appropriately on the whole but their command of language is not strong enough to acknowledge audience or context. There are unlikely to be more than a few accurate sentences.
- W5: Weaknesses in spelling, punctuation and grammar are persistent, but the reader is able to follow at least part of the writing.

Band 1 (1–5): Writing does not communicate adequately

- W1: Very simple meanings are attempted, but most of the work is too inaccurate and blurred to make sense.
- W2: An absence of overall structure and paragraphing leads to confusion.
- W3: Very simple meanings are attempted, but the candidate's knowledge of vocabulary is too slight to make adequate sense.
- W4: There is insufficient evidence of audience, context or sentence structures to reward.
- W5: The amount and breadth of error prevents sufficient communication of meaning.

Band 0 (0): Writing does not meet the above criteria

Table B: Band descriptions for reading (Assignment 3 only) (10 marks)

Band 5 9–10 marks	Candidates analyse and evaluate several ideas and details from the text(s), and develop lines of thought. Their own ideas are closely related to the original text(s) and show a good understanding of the main arguments.
Band 4 7–8 marks	Candidates respond in detail to ideas from the text(s), explaining them and expressing views on them with varying degrees of effectiveness. There is some reference to details in the original. Their own ideas are based on those of the original text(s).
Band 3 5–6 marks	Candidates show some response to the ideas in the text(s), summarising them and giving simple views on them. Their own thinking is relevant, if not always tightly focused on the original text(s).
Band 2 3–4 marks	Candidates give a response to the original text(s). Their ideas are relevant to the topic but make only occasional references to individual ideas or details in the original text(s).
Band 1 1–2 marks	Candidates write about the topic but there is little evidence that they have read or understood the text(s).
Band 0 0 marks	There is no discernible reference to the topic or to the text(s).

7.1.4 Instructions for completing Individual Candidate Record Cards

1. A copy of the relevant Individual Candidate Record Card can be downloaded from www.cie.org.uk/samples
2. The database will ask you for the syllabus code and your Centre number, after which it will take you to the correct forms.
3. Mark the coursework assignment for each candidate according to the assessment criteria provided in Section 7.1.3.
4. (a) Enter a mark for writing (out of 40) and a mark for reading (out of 10 – Assignment 3 only) in the appropriate spaces on the record card.
(b) Complete other sections of the form.
5. Add the marks for writing and reading and enter the total mark (out of 50) in the appropriate box on the record card ('Total mark to be transferred to Coursework Assessment Summary Form').
6. Transfer the marks to the First Language English – Component 4, Coursework Portfolio, Coursework Assessment Summary Form, in line with the instructions in Section 7.1.5.
7. Retain all Individual Candidate Record Cards and samples of coursework.

Note: Teachers should use these record cards only for candidates who have undertaken coursework as part of their Cambridge IGCSE.

7.1.5 Instructions for completing Coursework Assessment Summary Forms

1. A copy of the relevant Coursework Assessment Summary Form can be downloaded from www.cie.org.uk/samples
2. The database will ask you for the syllabus code and your Centre number, after which it will take you to the correct forms.
3. List the candidates in an order which allows the information to be transferred easily for submission to Cambridge at a later stage (i.e. in candidate index number order, where this is known). Show the teaching group or set for each candidate. The initials of the teacher may be used to indicate group or set.
4. Transfer each candidate's marks from her/his Individual Candidate Record Card to this summary form as follows:
 - (a) Enter the marks for writing (out of 40) and reading (out of 10 – Assignment 3 only) in the relevant columns.
 - (b) Enter the total (out of 50) in the column headed 'Total Mark'.
 - (c) In the column headed 'Internally Moderated Mark', enter the mark (out of 50) awarded after internal moderation took place. Leave blank if not applicable. See Section 7.1.2 for information about internal moderation.
5. Both the teacher/moderator completing the form and, where applicable, the internal moderator(s) must check the form, and complete and sign the bottom portion.

7.1.6 Arrangements for external moderation

1. External moderation of internal assessment is carried out by Cambridge.
2. The total marks, or where applicable the internally moderated marks for all candidates, should be submitted to Cambridge separate to the despatch for the moderator. The final dates, sample sizes and methods for submitting these internally assessed marks are detailed in the Cambridge Administrative Guide.
3. Please send the following to Cambridge to be sent to the moderator:
 - the candidates' work with the corresponding completed Individual Candidate Record Cards. Only send the work required for the sample
 - the completed Coursework Assessment Summary Form(s), with an asterisk (*) against the candidates' names who are in the sample
 - the total marks, internally moderated where appropriate, for all candidates.
4. Send the required materials and work to Cambridge, to arrive by the final advertised date in the timetable. Do not wait until the end of the assessment period before sending these items.
5. If Cambridge's moderator thinks it is necessary, because the sample received is unsatisfactory or the process of internal moderation at the Centre has not produced a reliable rank order of candidates, Cambridge will request further samples. The Centre must send these as soon as the request is received.
6. Feedback following external moderation

Centres will receive a brief report from the external moderator on the assessment of their candidates' portfolios. This will usually be sent at the time results are issued.

7.1.7 Resubmission and carrying forward of internally assessed marks

Information about resubmission and carrying forward of internally assessed marks can be found in the Cambridge Administrative Guide.

7.2 Component 5 Speaking and Listening Test

This component is optional for syllabus 0500 and is separately endorsed.

Please read this information in conjunction with the relevant sections of the Cambridge Handbook and the Cambridge Administrative Guide.

7.2.1 Test structure

Part 1 Individual task (3–4 minutes) (10 marks)

For example, a presentation, a talk, a speech, a monologue.

- The candidate talks for about 3–4 minutes on a single topic or theme selected by the candidate prior to the test. The talk should be continuous and there should be no need for the teacher/examiner to intervene. Teachers/examiners only interrupt to ask questions if candidates show no signs of finishing after about 4½ minutes, or to prompt candidates who are finding it difficult to continue.
- Candidates need to show that they are able to prepare and organise material, are aware of audience, and that they can select and employ a range of language devices.
- The individual task should be lively and interesting; candidates should therefore prepare a topic in which they have a personal interest.
- Candidates are encouraged to make presentations which are lively, by perhaps incorporating more creative presentational styles; taking up a ‘voice’ or presenting a dramatic monologue, for example.
- Candidates may bring a ‘cue card’ (about postcard size) into the examination room, to remind them of the main points they wish to make. Cue cards should contain a list of points, not continuous sentences. Candidates may also bring in a limited quantity of illustrative material, which may include maps, diagrams, statistics, pictures and short articles. Reading from, or reliance on, a script is not allowed.
- Candidates are encouraged to select their own topic. The topic should be appropriate and chosen with the support and advice of the candidate’s teacher. If a Centre has a specific query relating to this, they should contact Cambridge. The teacher must not be involved in the preparation of material for the individual task.

This part of the test is to be assessed using Table A of the assessment criteria, which can be found in Section 7.2.4.

Part 2 Discussion (6–7 minutes) (20 marks)

- The individual task leads into a conversation with the teacher/examiner about the candidate’s chosen topic. The role of the teacher/examiner in this conversation is that of an interested and sympathetic participant, allowing the candidate every opportunity both to put views forward, and to seek information and opinions from the teacher/examiner.
- During the individual task, teachers/examiners are likely to make notes in order to help them ask appropriate questions.
- Candidates must be prepared to supply additional factual material where appropriate and to express and defend a point of view. In order to give the candidate every opportunity to do this, questions are of the ‘tell me more about...’, ‘why?’ and ‘how?’ variety, rather than closed questions which may be answered by ‘yes/no’.
- Candidates should be encouraged to consider how a conversation might develop around their chosen topic; if they cannot think of six questions they could be asked, the topic is unlikely to be easy to discuss.

- Candidates should not be made to feel embarrassed about expressing viewpoints that are not those of the teacher/examiner. The teacher/examiner may wish to ask questions about those views, but must not be antagonistic towards the candidate.
- The teacher/examiner should normally allow 6–7 minutes for each candidate. If a candidate ‘dries up’ after a few minutes, the teacher/examiner should keep trying to make conversation so that the candidate is given every opportunity to do themselves justice. Teachers/examiners should be ready to explore another aspect of the topic if candidates are obviously out of their depth. Questions should be rephrased (rather than repeated) in an attempt to continue the dialogue.
- Teachers/examiners should beware of talking too much and of candidates being given credit for what the teacher/examiner has actually said. Candidates are responsible for showing that they can converse adequately; at the same time the teacher/examiner must make sure the candidate is given every opportunity to converse by following up any opening given.

This part of the test is to be assessed using Table B of the assessment criteria, which can be found in Section 7.2.4.

7.2.2 Administrative arrangements

1. Timetabling

- The Speaking and Listening Tests take place in the two months before the main examination period, as notified on the timetable. Each Centre will decide on a convenient time within this period for its tests.
- To allow sufficient time for moderation, please keep to the dates given for completing the Speaking and Listening Tests, conducting internal moderation where applicable, and for sending recordings and marks to Cambridge.

2. Materials for the Speaking and Listening Test

- There is no question paper for the test.
- Marking instructions and the Oral Examination Summary Form (see Section 7.2.3) for conducting and assessing the Speaking and Listening Test must be photocopied as required.
- The Centre must provide its own CDs (for the recording of the test for external moderation) and these must be of good quality. (Note that it is permissible to use audio cassettes, but the use of CDs and digital recording equipment is strongly preferred.)

3. Appointment of teacher/examiner(s)

- Each Centre selects its own examiner. This is usually a teacher from within the English department, but could be someone local from outside the Centre.
- The teacher/examiner conducts and assesses the test and submits a recorded sample for moderation by Cambridge.
- To make it easier to keep a common standard, there should be only one teacher/examiner per Centre.
- Before the start of the examination period, Centres with large numbers of candidates (more than 30) must get agreement from Cambridge to use additional teachers/examiners.
- Cambridge is not responsible for any fees agreed.

4. The Oral Examination Summary Form

- (a) The Oral Examination Summary Form is a working document, on which the marks for each section of the test are to be entered in detail, as specified in the instructions in Section 7.2.5. Be very careful to check all additions.
- (b) The total marks, or where applicable the internally moderated marks, should then be submitted to Cambridge as detailed in the Cambridge Administrative Guide.

5. Despatch and return of marks and forms

- (a) The total marks, or the internally moderated marks where applicable, are to be returned to Cambridge once all the tests have been completed. The final date for receipt is the end of the examination period for the Speaking and Listening Tests as detailed on the timetable. Do not wait until the end of the assessment period before sending them.
- (b) Copies of all marks are to be kept by the Centre in case of postal losses or delays.

6. Arrangements for the test

- The Speaking and Listening Test should be taken once only; candidates must not repeat the test. If a Centre has a specific query relating to this, they should contact Cambridge.
- Examination conditions must be in place in the area where the tests take place. A supervisor must be present outside the examination room to make sure that candidates leaving the room do not communicate with those waiting to enter. Candidates may bring a 'cue card' (about postcard size) into the examination room to remind them of the main points they wish to make. Cue cards should contain a list of points, not continuous sentences. Candidates may also bring with them a limited quantity of illustrative material, which may include maps, diagrams, statistics, pictures and short articles. Candidates are not allowed to have a script, nor are they allowed to consult dictionaries.
- Requests for special consideration must be made on the special consideration forms supplied to the Centre, and returned to Cambridge as indicated.
- Candidates must be examined on their own. No other person should be present during the test, with the exception of another teacher/examiner, the moderator, or an officer from Cambridge.
- The teacher/examiner should be positioned so that they face the candidate when they enter the room, with a table between the teacher/examiner and the candidate. Do not allow candidates to sit in a position where they can see what the teacher/examiner is writing on the mark sheets, as this can be distracting.
- A good teacher/examiner tries to put candidates at ease and sends candidates out of the examination smiling, no matter how good or bad their performance. The use of expressions such as 'very good', which a candidate may interpret as comments on performance, should, however, be avoided.
- Other recommendations for teacher/examiners: do not walk about or distract candidates in any way (e.g. by doodling or fiddling with papers); always appear interested, even in mundane matters; never show undue surprise, impatience or mockery; never correct a candidate.

7. Recording of candidates

- Each teacher/examiner must record the Speaking and Listening Test for all candidates they examine.
- Centres must check well in advance that a suitably quiet room is available and that their recording equipment is working. Please avoid rooms that are too close to a playground, recreation room or noisy classroom. Unnecessary background noise must be excluded.
- The recording equipment and the CD(s) should be tested in situ before the actual test, ideally with one of the candidates. It is essential that new unrecorded CDs are used. These must be supplied by the Centre. A recorder with external microphones is recommended so that separate microphones can be used for the candidate and the teacher/examiner. If only one microphone is used, it should be placed facing the candidate. With a softly-spoken candidate, the microphone should be placed nearer to the candidate before the start of the test. Please do not adjust the volume control during an examination.

- Each recording should be introduced clearly by the teacher/examiner as follows:
"Centre name and number: e.g. New School, Wellington; Centre number NZ999
Examination: Cambridge IGCSE First Language English, Syllabus 0500, Component 5, Speaking and Listening Test
Examiner: e.g. Ms Tui Smith
Date: e.g. 2nd March, 2017"
Each candidate should be introduced clearly by the teacher/examiner as follows:
"Candidate number: e.g. 0123
Candidate name: e.g. Charlie Cheng"
At the end of the recording, please state "End of recording".
- Once a test has begun, do not interrupt or repeat the recording. On no account should you stop and re-start the recording during a test.
- The Speaking and Listening Test cannot be repeated in the same examination series. If a Centre has a specific query about this, they should contact Cambridge at info@cie.org.uk
- The contents of each CD must be clearly labelled. Before the set of recordings is sent to Cambridge, make spot checks to ensure every candidate can be clearly heard.
- For Centres using cassette tapes, in addition to the above, the recording should begin at the start of side 1. Care should be taken to avoid long gaps and extraneous noise. Both sides of each cassette should be used before beginning a new cassette and the contents of each should be clearly labelled. At the end of the recording on each side of the cassette, the teacher/examiner states: "No further recordings on this side." Cassettes should be rewound to the start of side 1 before they are sent to Cambridge.

7.2.3 Marking instructions

1. Candidates' marks must be recorded on the Oral Examination Summary Form produced by Cambridge. This form, and the instructions for completing it, may be downloaded from www.cie.org.uk/samples. The database will ask you for the syllabus code (i.e. 0500) and your Centre number, after which it will take you to the correct forms. Follow the instructions when completing each form.
2. The total mark for the two parts to the test must be based on how the assessment criteria have been met.
3. The teacher must mark each candidate's test out of a total of 30, in line with the assessment criteria in Section 7.2.4. The total mark for the test is divided into 10 marks for speaking on Part 1 (Individual task), and 10 marks for speaking and 10 marks for listening on Part 2 (Discussion).
4. Internal moderation
If more than one teacher/examiner is used within a Centre, it is essential that the marks for each strand of the assessment criteria are moderated internally for the whole Centre. This means that the marks awarded to all candidates within a Centre must be brought to a common standard by the teacher responsible for co-ordinating the internal assessment (i.e. the internal moderator). A single valid and reliable set of marks should be produced which reflects the relative attainment of all the candidates in the test at the Centre. If the marking of any teacher is found to be lenient or severe, it should be adjusted to bring it into line with the rest of the Centre's marking. If the internal moderator cannot agree the rank order of the candidates in any teaching set, the work of that set must be remarked.

7.2.4 Assessment criteria

Note: It should not be assumed that a band in the assessment criteria directly equates to a grade. Final grade thresholds are decided for each session based on available evidence.

Marking: general principles

1. You are encouraged to use the full range of marks, bearing in mind that it is not necessary for a candidate to give a faultless performance for maximum marks to be awarded within any single category.
2. The general approach is a positive one.
3. Within any band, marks should be awarded on a 'best-fit' basis. Thus, compensation between higher and lower achievement for different aspects is acceptable.
4. Above all else, be consistent in your marking. If you are unsure of the mark to award, err on the side of generosity. Cambridge's external moderation process allows for adjustments to be made to consistently harsh or generous marking.

Table A: Band descriptions for Component 5, Part 1 – Individual task (10 marks)

Band 5 9–10 marks	Full and well organised use of content; lively delivery sustaining audience interest; employs a wide range of language devices (e.g. tone, irony, emphasis) accurately and sometimes eloquently.
Band 4 7–8 marks	Sound use of content; delivery may occasionally be stilted, but audience interest is generally maintained; employs a good range of language devices (e.g. tone, irony, emphasis) soundly.
Band 3 5–6 marks	Adequate use of content; delivery is secure but at times unimaginative, resulting in some loss of audience interest; language devices (e.g. tone, irony, emphasis) are used safely and appropriately.
Band 2 3–4 marks	Content is thin or perhaps inconsistently used; delivery is not secure, resulting in significant loss of audience interest; limited employment of language devices (e.g. tone, irony, emphasis) with some inaccuracy.
Band 1 1–2 marks	Content is mostly undeveloped and/or very thin; delivery is weak and the audience is generally lost; not able to use language devices (e.g. tone, irony, emphasis) or devices used with serious error.
Band 0 0 marks	Does not meet the above criteria.

Table B: Band descriptions for Component 5, Part 2 – Discussion (20 marks)

For Part 2, separate marks for each category (speaking, listening) should be arrived at.

Speaking		Listening
Band 5 9–10 marks	Extends the subject matter and elicits responses from the listener; speaks on equal terms with the listener. Employs a wide range of language devices (e.g. tone, irony, emphasis) accurately and sometimes eloquently.	Band 5 9–10 marks	Responds fully to questions and develops prompts; deals confidently and sometimes enthusiastically with alterations in the direction of the conversation.
Band 4 7–8 marks	Subject matter is organised and expressed competently; attempts to speak on equal terms with the listener but with a varying degree of success. Employs a good range of language devices (e.g. tone, irony, emphasis) soundly.	Band 4 7–8 marks	Responds appropriately and in some detail to questions and prompts; deals appropriately with most of the changes in direction of the conversation.
Band 3 5–6 marks	Deals with the subject matter adequately; the listener is generally but not always prominent. Language devices (e.g. tone, irony, emphasis) are used safely and appropriately.	Band 3 5–6 marks	Responds to questions adequately but deals less effectively with prompts; changes in the direction of the conversation are occasionally dealt with.
Band 2 3–4 marks	There is evidence of some linking together of ideas relating to the subject matter but it is inconsistent; accepts that the listener is in full control of the conversation. Limited use of language devices (e.g. tone, irony, emphasis) with some inaccuracy.	Band 2 3–4 marks	Provides limited response to the questions and struggles to develop prompts; tends to maintain the direction of the conversation.
Band 1 1–2 marks	Simple facts and ideas are expressed with generally unsuccessful attempts at organisation; is barely capable of engaging in a two-way conversation. Not able to use language devices (e.g. tone, irony, emphasis) or devices used with serious error.	Band 1 1–2 marks	Responds simply or is unable to respond to questions or prompts; cannot recognise changes in the direction of the conversation.

7.2.5 Instructions for completing Oral Examination Summary Forms

1. A copy of the Oral Examination Summary Form can be downloaded from www.cie.org.uk/samples
2. The database will ask you for the syllabus code and your Centre number, after which it will take you to the correct forms.
3. List the candidates in an order which allows the information to be easily submitted to Cambridge at a later stage (i.e. in candidate index number order, where this is known). Give a brief description of each candidate's individual task (e.g. 'Human Rights', 'Hockey', etc.) in the column provided.
4. Enter the marks for the individual task and the discussion (speaking and listening) in the relevant columns.
5. Add the marks and enter the total (out of 30) in the column headed 'Total Mark'.
6. In the column headed 'Internally Moderated Mark', enter the mark (out of 30) awarded after any internal moderation took place. Leave blank if not applicable. See Section 7.2.3 for information about internal moderation.
7. Both the teacher/examiner completing the form and, where applicable, the internal moderator(s) must check the form, and complete and sign the bottom portion.

7.2.6 Arrangements for external moderation

1. External moderation of internal assessment is carried out by Cambridge.
2. The total marks, or where applicable the internally moderated marks for all candidates, should be submitted to Cambridge separate to the despatch for the moderator. The final date, sample sizes and methods for submitting these internally assessed marks are detailed in the Cambridge Administrative Guide.
3. Please send the following to Cambridge to be sent to the moderator:
 - the recording of candidates' work, and only candidates required for the sample, with the corresponding completed Oral Examination Summary Form. On this form place an asterisk (*) against the candidates' names who are in the sample
 - the total marks, internally moderated where appropriate, for all candidates.
4. Send the required materials and marks to Cambridge, to arrive by the end of the examination period as advertised in the timetable. Do not wait until the end of the assessment period before sending these items.
5. If Cambridge's moderator thinks it is necessary, because the sample received is unsatisfactory or the process of internal moderation at the Centre has not produced a reliable rank order of candidates, Cambridge will request further samples. The Centre must send these as soon as the request is received.
6. Feedback following external moderation
Centres will receive a brief report from the external moderator on the assessment of their candidates' Speaking and Listening Test. This will usually be sent at the time results are issued.

7.2.7 Resubmission and carrying forward of internally assessed marks

Information about resubmission and carrying forward of internally assessed marks can be found in the Cambridge Administrative Guide.

7.3 Component 6 Speaking and Listening Coursework

This component is optional for syllabus 0500 and is separately endorsed.

Please read this information in conjunction with the relevant sections of the Cambridge Handbook and the Cambridge Administrative Guide.

7.3.1 Administrative arrangements

1. Materials for the Speaking and Listening Coursework

Individual Candidate Record Cards and Coursework Assessment Summary Forms for Speaking and Listening Coursework may be downloaded from www.cie.org.uk/samples. Centres devise their own tasks to help candidates demonstrate the skills outlined in the assessment criteria.

2. Appointment of internal teacher/moderator(s)

- This is usually a teacher from within the English department, but could be someone local from outside the Centre.
- The teacher/moderator conducts and assesses the activities and submits a recorded sample for moderation by Cambridge.
- To make it easier to keep a common standard, there should only be one teacher/moderator per Centre.
- Before the submission of samples, Centres with large numbers of candidates (more than 30) must get agreement from Cambridge to use additional teachers/moderators.
- Cambridge is not responsible for any fees agreed.

3. Recording of candidates

- Task 1 and Task 2 for all candidates should be recorded.
- Centres must provide a suitably quiet room and check that their recording equipment is working. Please avoid rooms that are too close to a playground, recreation room or noisy classroom. Unnecessary background noise must be excluded.
- The recording equipment and the CD(s) should be tested in situ before the activity, ideally with one of the candidates. It is essential that new unrecorded CDs are used. These must be supplied by the Centre. A recorder with external microphones is recommended so that separate microphones can be used for the candidate and the teacher/moderator. If only one microphone is used, it should be placed facing the candidate. With a softly-spoken candidate, the microphone should be placed nearer to the candidate before the start of the recording. Please do not adjust the volume control during a recording. (Note that it is permissible to use audio cassettes, but the use of CDs and digital recording is strongly preferred.)
- Each recording should be introduced by the teacher/moderator as follows:

"Centre name and number: e.g.: New College, Johannesburg; Centre Number ZA999

Examination: Cambridge IGCSE First Language English, Syllabus 0500, Component 6: Speaking and Listening Coursework

Moderator: e.g. Ms Sally Jones

Date: e.g. January 7th 2017"

Each candidate should be introduced clearly by the teacher/moderator as follows:

"Candidate number: e.g. 3210

Candidate name: e.g. Kelvin Johnson"

At the end of the recording, please state "End of recording".

- Once a recording has begun, do not interrupt the recording. On no account should you stop and re-start the recording during an activity. The contents of each CD must be clearly labelled. Before the CD is sent to Cambridge, make spot checks to ensure every candidate can be clearly heard.
- For Centres using cassette tapes, in addition to the above, the recording should begin at the start of side 1. Care should be taken to avoid long gaps and extraneous noise. Both sides of each cassette should be used before beginning a new cassette. At the end of the examining on each side of the cassette, the teacher/moderator states: "No further recordings on this side." Cassettes should be rewound to the start of side 1 before they are sent to Cambridge.

7.3.2 Marking instructions

1. Candidates' marks must be recorded on Individual Candidate Record Cards produced by Cambridge. These forms, and the instructions for completing them, may be downloaded from www.cie.org.uk/samples. The database will ask you for the syllabus code (i.e. 0500) and your Centre number, after which it will take you to the correct forms. Follow the instructions when completing each form.
2. Individual tasks may be awarded marks/grades in whatever way is most appropriate for teachers and candidates. However, the total mark for the tasks must be based on how the assessment criteria have been met. This total mark must reflect how achievement has varied across the different tasks, and how performance has varied across the assessment criteria for each task. Assessment, therefore, usually involves balancing strengths and weaknesses in the candidate's work overall. For this reason, the total mark is not necessarily a mathematical calculation based on marks/grades awarded to individual tasks.
3. The teacher must mark each candidate's coursework out of a total of 30, in line with the assessment criteria in Section 7.3.3. The total mark for the coursework is divided into 10 marks for speaking on Task 1 (Individual activity), 5 marks for speaking and 5 marks for listening on Task 2 (Pair-based activity) and 10 marks for speaking and listening on Task 3 (Group activity).
4. Incomplete coursework
If one task is not included in the submission, one third of the total mark should be deducted.
5. Internal moderation
Internal moderation should take place for Centres with more than one teacher/moderator. It is essential that the marks for each strand of the assessment criteria of candidates from different teaching groups within each Centre are moderated internally for the whole Centre. This means that the marks awarded to all candidates within a Centre must be brought to a common standard by the teacher responsible for co-ordinating the internal assessment (i.e. the internal moderator). A single valid and reliable set of marks should be produced, which reflects the relative attainment of all the candidates in the Speaking and Listening Coursework component at the Centre. If the marking of any teacher is found to be lenient or severe, it should be adjusted to bring it into line with the rest of the Centre's marking. If the internal moderator cannot agree the rank order of the candidates in any teaching set, the work of that set must be remarked.

7.3.3 Assessment criteria

Note: It should not be assumed that a band in the assessment criteria directly equates to a grade. Final grade thresholds are decided for each session based on available evidence.

Table B: Band descriptions for Component 6, Task 2 – Pair-based Activity (10 marks)

For Task 2, separate marks for each category (speaking, listening) should be arrived at.

Speaking		Listening
Band 5 5 marks	Extends the subject matter and elicits responses from the listener; speaks on equal terms with the listener. Employs a wide range of language devices (e.g. tone, irony, emphasis) accurately and sometimes eloquently.	Band 5 5 marks	Responds fully to questions and develops prompts; deals confidently and sometimes enthusiastically with alterations in the direction of the conversation.
Band 4 4 marks	Subject matter is organised and expressed competently; attempts to speak on equal terms with the listener but with a varying degree of success. Band 3 3 marks	Responds to questions adequately but deals less effectively with prompts; changes in the direction of the conversation are occasionally dealt with.
Band 2 2 marks	There is evidence of some linking together of ideas relating to the subject matter but it is inconsistent; accepts that the listener is in full control of the conversation. Limited use of language devices (e.g. tone, irony, emphasis) with some inaccuracy.	Band 2 2 marks	Provides limited response to the questions and struggles to develop prompts; tends to maintain the direction of the conversation.
Band 1 1 mark	Simple facts and ideas are expressed with generally unsuccessful attempts at organisation; is barely capable of engaging in a two-way conversation. Not able to use language devices (e.g. tone, irony, emphasis) or devices used with serious error.	Band 1 1 mark	Responds simply or is unable to respond to questions or prompts; cannot recognise changes in the direction of the conversation.
Band 0 0 marks	Does not meet the above criteria.	Band 0 0 marks	Does not meet the above criteria.

Table C: Band descriptions for Component 6, Task 3 – Group Activity (10 marks)

Band 5 9–10 marks	Can argue ideas and opinions in persuasive detail without dominating the rest of the group; adept at acting as group leader; usefully refers back to previous points; always looks to suggest new approaches and to move forward; listens sympathetically and considers the views of others fully.
Band 4 7–8 marks	Can argue ideas and opinions soundly but may at times overshadow other members of the group; is capable of leading the group but with only partial assurance; refers back to previous points soundly but not entirely successfully; recognises the need to suggest new approaches but implements this only partially; listens with a degree of sympathy for others' views but has a tendency to interrupt at times.
Band 3 5–6 marks	Frequent but generally brief contributions are made; generally accepts a position of group member rather than facilitator/leader; makes occasional reference to previous points; may help to support new approaches but rarely initiates them; listens carefully and responds briefly but appropriately to others.
Band 2 3–4 marks	Brief and infrequent contributions are made; plays a limited part in the group; cannot make use of previous points; follows the general drift of the discussion but struggles to support new approaches; listens inconsistently and may even drift away from the discussion.
Band 1 1–2 marks	May only make one or two contributions or may offer mostly inappropriate contributions; plays no real role in group membership; is largely ignorant of previous points; does not offer support for new approaches; may appear to listen but shows little evidence of listening.
Band 0 0 marks	Does not meet the above criteria.

7.3.4 Instructions for completing Individual Candidate Record Cards

1. A copy of the relevant Individual Candidate Record Card can be downloaded from www.cie.org.uk/samples

4. Enter a description of each of the three coursework tasks (individual activity, pair-based activity and group activity) and the mark for each task in the appropriate spaces.
5. Add the marks for the three tasks and enter the mark (out of 30) in the Total Mark box on the record card.
6. Transfer the marks to the First Language English – Component 6, Speaking and Listening Coursework Assessment Summary Form in line with the instructions in Section 7.3.5.
7. Retain all Individual Candidate Record Cards and samples of recorded coursework.

Note: Teachers should use these record cards only for candidates who have undertaken coursework as part of their Cambridge IGCSE.

7.3.7 Resubmission and carrying forward of internally assessed marks

Information about resubmission and carrying forward of internally assessed marks can be found in the Cambridge Administrative Guide.

8. Other information

Equality and inclusion

Cambridge International Examinations has taken great care in the preparation of this syllabus and assessment materials to avoid bias of any kind. To comply with the UK Equality Act (2010), Cambridge has designed this qualification with the aim of avoiding direct and indirect discrimination.

The standard assessment arrangements may present unnecessary barriers for candidates with disabilities or learning difficulties. Arrangements can be put in place for these candidates to enable them to access the assessments and receive recognition of their attainment. Access arrangements will not be agreed if they give candidates an unfair advantage over others or if they compromise the standards being assessed.

Candidates who are unable to access the assessment of any component may be eligible to receive an award based on the parts of the assessment they have taken.

Information on access arrangements is found in the Cambridge Handbook which can be downloaded from the website www.cie.org.uk/examsofficer

Language

This syllabus and the associated assessment materials are available in English only.

Grading and reporting

Cambridge IGCSE results are shown by one of the grades A*, A, B, C, D, E, F or G indicating the standard achieved, A* being the highest and G the lowest. 'Ungraded' indicates that the candidate's performance fell short of the standard required for grade G. 'Ungraded' will be reported on the statement of results but not on the certificate. The letters Q (result pending), X (no results) and Y (to be issued) may also appear on the statement of results but not on the certificate.

Entry codes

To maintain the security of our examinations, we produce question papers for different areas of the world, known as 'administrative zones'. Where the component entry code has two digits, the first digit is the component number given in the syllabus. The second digit is the location code, specific to an administrative zone. Information about entry codes can be found in the Cambridge Guide to Making Entries.
